

HOW TO JAM FAQs

What is a Jam?

By invitation, online collaborative discussions for focused audiences ranging in size from a few thousand to hundreds of thousands. Jam Hosts and facilitators guide participants to build on each other's ideas – supporting a meaningful exchange of perspectives by a focused audience around a shared topic. “VIP guests” – and other notable subject matter experts – engage in the Jam by starting discussions at pre-arranged times.

When is the Jam?

Registration is now live:

The Jam starts Tuesday, May 12th @ 9 am U.S. ET and ends Thursday, May 14th @ 11 am U.S. ET

You can log on and join the conversation at any time during the Jam for however long you would like.

What do I need to jam?

You don't need anything more than a computer, tablet or smartphone to be engaged in the conversation.

How do I register for the Jam?

The Transatlantic Security Jam is an invitation only event. If you received an email invitation from Friends of Europe, the registration link is in the email. Follow the link and then complete the registration steps on the IBM platform.

How do I participate in the Jam?

Jammers can dive in to any of the topics and engage by:

Starting a conversation, replying to others, liking the content they are reading, following any Jammer to add them to 'Your Network', watching (bookmarking) any conversation to see how the idea it contains evolves

How do I access Jam conversations?

Jammers can view conversations of interest by selecting any of the Jam Wide Themes, also accessible via the Topics page

The screenshot displays the 'Transatlantic Security Jam' website interface. The header includes the title 'Transatlantic Security Jam' with the subtitle 'Securing the Post COVID-19 Future', a search bar, and a menu icon. Below the header is a navigation bar with icons for Dashboard, Topics (highlighted), Polls, Chat, Your Network, and Your Jam. The main content area is titled 'Topics' and features a list of seven topics, each with a globe icon, a title, a brief description, and counts for 'Emerging Ideas' and 'Conversations'. The topics are: 'Competition for Influence', 'NATO Mission and Core Tasks in Action', 'Cooperation and Autonomy', 'Transatlantic Security, NATO-EU Relations', 'Technological and Industrial Edge', and 'Covid-19 Relations with China'. To the right of the topic list is a 'Start a Conversation' button and a section titled 'What to write about?' with instructions on how to engage with the topics.

Innovation is about combining "new" with "improved". It's not about re-inventing the wheel but finding ways to take existing ideas and modernize, remix and improve them.
